GRIEVING- THE WORLD OF DEMENTIA / ALZHEIMER'S

In the world and homes where Dementia/Alzheimer's has become part of the lives, homes and families, grief also comes with losses to that person (identity, memory, dreams, recognizing the familiar) causing fear, anger and depression. . Grief also comes to those who are part of that life of a loved one. From the beginning of the journey with the diagnosis until the physical death grieving begins. Loved ones experience the grief of loss too; loss of relationship, remembering past and often the present , the personality changes, saying good-bye often to the person that was known and loved and meeting a new and changing person.

Loved ones, while grieving still have supportive caring, patience and unconditional love. It would be so easy to look back and try to recapture life as it was but now having to learn to embrace memories of the loved person and life as it was while adapting to the new personality and the changes.

An Alzheimer's Prayer by author unknown

Please grant my visitors, tolerance for my confusion, forgiveness for my irrationality and strength to walk with me into the mist of memory my world has become.

Please help them take my hand and stay awhile even though I seem unaware of their presence. Help them to know how their strength and loving care will drift softly into days to come just when I need it most. Let them know when I don't recognize them, that I will, I will ---. Keep their hearts free of sorrow for me for my sorrow, when it comes, only lasts a moment – then it is gone.

And finally Lord, please let them know how very much their visits mean, how even through this relentless mystery, I can feel their love.

Amen

For those who love and care for that loved one seek out support for yourself and your loved one. There are support groups to support you on the journey as a care giver and family member, to learn all you can and to be even a better support and to meet with other families to share common concerns and emotions of the journey.

The Pastors' Gleanings

Fear is a bad reasoner. Jesus said, "Fear not....come to me."

We should not make decisions when we are fearful.

Instead, we should turn to Jesus so that he can calm our fears
And help us make the right decisions.
